

Seeing Red

The colour Red is the Theme for 2008

ART2WEAR 2008

Members of the Quilters' Guild are invited to submit work for the selection of Art to Wear 2008,

Inspired by the colour Red

The Art to Wear is an integral part of the Sydney Quilt Festival to be held at the Exhibition Centre, Darling Harbour
11th – 15th June 2008

The 'Art to Wear' is an exhibition of garments displaying superb technical skill and artistic merit, open to all members of the Quilters' Guild.

This is a two tier exhibition attracting both professional and student entries

The concept of this exhibition is to promote both contemporary and functional Wearable Art. Within this exhibition the artist can interpret every available surface design and textile medium to showcase the artist's personal signature.
This year we are aiming to achieve an even greater impact, using the colour theme for cohesion in display, with a background of graffiti art and lighting.

A wall mounted display titled "Caught Red Handed"

Create a wearable art piece to be worn on the hand or arm. The 'play area' is from finger tips to below elbow.
These smaller art pieces are always a huge success and a great way to inspire and promote yourselves and your art.

Those seeking selection should submit all of the following by 1st April 2008:

- * Completed Entry Form
- * Email, photograph or CD of proposed garment for display - front, back and a detail.
- * Supporting documentation, including explanation of the techniques used.
- * Artist's Statement, max.100 words for catalogue insertion

These can be submitted as email (low res.), CD or mailed

The entry is similar to other juried exhibitions, with selection dependant on the garment photo and the accompanying brief forming the submission.
